1 SITUATION

1.1 General situation

September 1st 2011 (D1) JFACC initiated airstrikes against Syrian forces while LCC started preparing its offensive. During D2 JFACC have continued engagements toward Syrian forces in Syria and in the occupied territory. Turkish local forces have been heavily engaged against Syrian forces IVO the Ataturk Dam, and despite support by CAS assets the area have fallen to Syrian hands. During D3 Syrian air assets have been reduced with efforts on Tabqa airbase. During D4 Syrian air assets was reduced through an attack at Hama airfield. JFACC supported LCC with several sorties to prepare for ground assault planned to start D5. During D5, JFACC focused on the effort of shaping the battlefield for LCC to set conditions for the ground assault, now planned to be executed on D6.

- CONOP submitted NLT D+8

4.2 MCC:

- BPT move CSG-1 operations box based on JFACC needs.
- Use SAG-1 to protect shipping in the western Mediterranean.

4.3 JFACC:

- Priority of effort is on establishing Air Superiority in support of LCC and set conditions for own operations.
- Start shaping for phase 2 in the operation (Create permissive environment).
- Continue support to LCC.
- Be prepared to prepare contingency plans for striking Syrian WMD at short notice (regardless of phase). Expect this plan to be asked for prior to commencing phase 2.
  - ALR: EXTREME approved for such a plan.
- Phase 2 planning:
  - JFC are working with political leaders to get an agreement to use airbases in Iraq during parts of phase 2. Airbases in question are H3, H3 Northwest. H3 Southwest. JFACC can at some point start contingency planning for using these airbases (Need ATC charts, coordinate with 176th), how can the airbases be used to best support JFACC (what squadrons to be based there?), what targets, or what can be achieved by using these bases.
  - A parallel effort to using the airbases in Iraq is to ensure overflight rights over Lebanon or Israel for any carrier based aircraft.
  - We do not have a time estimate, but it will not happen until Phase 2 at the earliest.

4.4 VIS:

- Support JFACC planning and execution
- Be prepared to support JFACC with creating contingency plan for striking Syrian WMD at short notice.
